To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to write on behalf of Stephanie Courson, who is applying for internship as a school psychology student. As a School Psychologist of Lake County Schools, I have supervised Stephanie as a practicum student since the fall of 2020, in both the elementary and high school settings. She has interacted with me in several contexts including student problem solving meetings, individual evaluation, Section 504 eligibility meetings, Exceptional Student Education meetings, parent conferences and conferences with school personnel.

Stephanie demonstrates characteristics that are essential for school psychologists. She is attentive, prepared, demonstrates well-written correspondence with school personnel, and poses questions that are meaningful to enhance her learning in the field. She possesses excellent background knowledge in assessment, problem solving and intervention recommendations. Stephanie also demonstrates excellent communication skills and leadership qualities in working among school personnel.

In closing, I believe that Stephanie has the capacity to excel as a school psychology intern in your county. Please do not hesitate to contact me with further questions.

Thank you,
